

THE DIXON

Family Research

Gord Jenkins

Son of Lloyd Harold Jenkins and Margaret Dixon Jenkins

Monday, July 16, 2007

taken 1905 - *original copy resides with GRJ with L G Dixon
writing on back*

"Hong Kong Fifth Anniversary Day 1905"

Lancelot George Dixon

Age 33

aka Grandpa Dixon

(6 Feb 1872 to 15 Oct 1937)

born on Devonshire Street District Penntn- County of Cumberland
U.K. to Lancelot George Thomas Dixon - "Yeoman and Spirit
Merchant" per Grandfathers Birth Certificate

Note 2 below

Details

- ❑ Born on 6th Feb 1872 Devonshire Street Penntn
- ❑ became Master Mariner or Ship Master at age 28
- ❑ residence stated as "The Hill - Crosby Garret -Westmoreland England "on Margaret Jenkins Birth Certificate of which I-GRJ- have a copy)
- ❑ the son of Lancelot George Thomas Dixon and Mary Rome (he was Yeoman and Spirit Merchant)(but shown as Master Mariner also on their marriage certificate ?
- ❑ after the demise of sailing ship he retired with family to Miramachi in NB. He got a job in Ottawa after Halifax explosion and moved without family to Aylmer Quebec He became eventually a Superintendent of Federal Governments Department of Marine and Fisheries.(which became Ministry of Transport then Department of Transport)
- ❑ Buried in Dixon Plot Aylmer
- ❑ Grandpa had 2 brothers
1/Charles-----

1/Charles
2/Vincent

Note 3 below

Annie Winifred Dixon formerly Hallam

Age 30

aka Grannie Dixon

- (2 Mar 1874 to 20 Jun 1956)
- Born Earl Street Colne ,County of Lancaster
- father was Richard Thomas Roe Walton Hallam occupation ?? died 1857
married to Margaret Hantley
Buried in Dixon Plot Aylmer

Note 1 below

- Wilkinson & Hallam about 1835
- to Pearson & Wilkinson about 1800
- to Pearson Henry & Sagar about 1700
- to Mary Walton 1669 and John Pearson 1673
- and ending up with the rich Mr Henry Walton 1640 who was the Walton's who had the estate "Marsden Hall and park (Nelson) and of Altham " County of Palantine

Lancaster England and the money! The Walton's were NOT royalty but he was an Esquire.

- Marsden Hall "was erected in 1560 and 1740 respectively" per pamphlet "A Brief History of the Waltons of Marsden Hall" 1926 Nelson publishers: Caffey & Priestley Inc Chapel Street 1926 (note further references put at bottom) (In this document I found that Banistre was a Huguenot surname!)
-

Details :

Annie Winifred Hallam: Her brothers and sisters are a bit confusing as I have 2 different lists (Margaret and Aunt Winnie)

1/ Banastre Denison

2/ Cecil

3/ Hilda

4/ Josey (for Josephine)

5/ Cathie (for Catherine) Elsie Winifred

6/ Margaret Winifred Hartley

7/ Nora

8/ William (on Margaret's list only)

See Note 3 below)

Details on Their Marriage

Grannie and Grandpa Dixon were married on Sept 24 1900 - he was as per their Marriage Certificate Note 4 below

He was noted as age 28 and a "Master Mariner" - Grannie was a "spinster and aged 25 Married Kirkby Stephen , West Moreland - England

They had seven children - in order they were:

1/ Lancelot George Dixon (9 Aug 1902 to 27 April 1968)

born in England

Buried in Dixon Plot Aylmer

Note 5

Note - best picture I have - anyone got a better one??

2/ Margaret Winifred Jenkins (10 Nov 1904 to 5 June 1994)

Died of "old age" -Margaret had lung cancer and a myriad of other diseases and ailments at the time of death- hard to pin down which one she died of according to doctor- she smoked till the end!!)

Married to Lloyd Jenkins Aylmer PQ 24 Aug 1935 at Christ church Aylmer

Picture taken at 422 Queen Street circa 1952 with Grannie

Margaret born on sailing ship SS Combermere in Erde Basin
Brooklyn New York - registered 18 Nov 1904 Note 6

Note -there are pictures that a number of Dixon's have of a sailing ship in full sail - this is NOT the SS Combermere - and I have no idea what ship it is - a good picture though of a sailing ship :>)

3/ Banastre Denison Dixon (27 Jan 1906 to 16 Aug 1950)
(born on sailing ship SS Combermere probably at sea - registered at Pt Adelaide Australia - per Birth Registry Office 10 days after birth)
See Note 7 below.

*Banastre worked at National Research Council in Ottawa .
(Died of heart attack-embolism in head- he had only one lung as a result of TB and one eye-he had a glass eye)
His wife was Hilda Dixon who died 2 Nov 1996*

Taken in Aylmer Quebec at "The Manse" (picture of lady on left is Connie Troy)

- born on ship SS Combermere Pt Adelaide Australia - birth not registered in port till 16
Feb 1906 in Pt Adelaide which suggest Banastre born at sea (I have copy of
Australian birth certificate) Worked at NRC Ottawa - died of "heart attack" -pulmonary embolism in head- had TB badly and was down to one lung- had one eye- (when we were children Bannie would take out glass eye and spin it on plate till my Mother would say -
put eye back in Bannie now!!- Banastre is Huguenot surname
Buried in Dixon Plot Aylmer

Note 7